

Turnover 2008 Targets exceeded

Consolidated turnover (1 January–31 December)

M EUR	2008	2007	Difference
Q4 turnover	70.5	61.0	+ 15.6%
Full-year turnover	228.4	196.4	+ 16.3%

Initial growth predictions of 5-6%, adjusted to 9% in October 2008, were comfortably exceeded.

Organic growth in 2008 was up 11.8% (+13.3% at constant rates of exchange).

Maintenance activity reached EUR 77.3 m, 33.8% of the consolidated sales figures, compared with 32.9% in 2007.

The dramatic drop in the GBP had an impact on annual sales figures to the tune of CHF 3.1 m and will also affect EBITA.

Between October and December 2008, agta record acquired one distributor in the USA and two in the United Kingdom. These three acquisitions represent EUR 2 m of the 2008 sales figures and will have a slight positive effect on EBITA.

Trends for 2009

Market stability is predicted to continue into the first half of 2009, followed by a drop of around 10% in the second six months.

On 1 January 2009, the order book showed organic growth of 17.9% compared with 2008.

With this in mind, organic growth in 2009 is estimated at 3% and 7% growth is expected for the total turnover with a 12% rise in maintenance.

Next media release: Annual results 2008, 27 April 2009 after stock exchange.

Next meeting: presentation of the annual accounts 2008, 28 April 2009, 11.30 a.m. at the Park Hyatt, 5, Rue de la Paix, Paris.
